

Chief Of Staff

Jaime Bruderek is responsible for a wide range of duties that lead to the health of the entire organization. She provides leadership and effective management in all areas of staffing and personnel, administration, project completion, information technology, and development. She also serves as the organization's primary project leader, manages all special projects, oversees the finances, and keeps the organization on budget. She is responsible for designing and improving systems that create and deliver School Turnaround's services and ensuring that the program's strategies are acted upon successfully. In this role, Jaime makes sure that business operations are efficient and effective and that resources are being managed properly.

Prior to joining School Turnaround, Jaime served as Project Manager at Right Management Consultants, the worldwide leader in Organizational Consulting and Career Transition services. In this role, Jaime served as the main client contact for day-to-day operations. Companies in a variety of industries, including AIG, Lehman Brothers, TimeLife, Siemens Medical, Pitney Bowes, MetLife, Goldman Sacs, and the Mutual of New York benefited from the leadership development, communication, organizational assessment, and performance initiatives Jaime planned and monitored along with senior partners and consultants.

Jaime developed and executed the marketing plan, including creation and quality assurance of all proposals, marketing collateral, and sales materials when she served as Manager of Marketing and Sales Development for the Northeast Consulting Practice of Right Management. In this role, she served as the main global contact for marketing- and sales-related information for colleagues, clients, and prospects.

Jaime holds Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Fairfield University in Fairfield, CT. She is a member of the Pi Sigma Alpha, the National Political Science Honor's Society.
